

Peace House Shelter Project, a joint initiative between Centre for Women and Development and the Spanish Cooperation Agency (AECID), organized an Overview Seminar to celebrate its 6 years in operation and share experiences and lessons learned throughout the implementation with the partners in the against Human Trafficking.

The presence of Mrs. Pratibha Mehta, UN Resident Coordinator, and several representatives of diplomatic missions, national and international agencies and organizations cooperating with this well known project for the last years.

Mme. Hoang Thi Ai Nchien First Vice President of VWU delivering her opening speech

Mme. Hoang Thi Ai Nhien First Vice President of VWU stated in her opening Speech that "Peace House Shelter Project has been acknowledged to be an effective and suitable model that supports trafficking women and children. The model is also considered a necessary intervention to fight gender-based violence in Vietnam".

Mme. Cao Thi Hong Van, Director of CWD

Mme. Cao Thi Hong Van, Director of CWD, Mr. Doan The Vinh, Vice Director of Women and Children Trafficking prevention dept, C45 – Ministry of Public Security and Mrs. Le Thi Ha, acting Director of DSEP - MOLISA, shared their views and experiences on the daily work fighting against Human Trafficking as well as supporting victims of human trafficking from different perspectives.

Mr. Fernando Curcio, Ambassador of Spain

In his closing remarks His Excellency Mr. Fernando Curcio, Ambassador of Spain added “Fighting against human trafficking is a global aspiration which implies fighting poverty, social and gender inequalities, exclusion, corruption, lack of education and opportunities. This entails strong government leadership at every level and the engagement of the whole society.”

